

THE FAN MUSEUM

'A Hidden Treasure in the Heart of Historic Greenwich'

The Fan Museum holds regular fan making workshops on the first Saturday afternoon of each month.

These sessions are conducted by an experienced tutor who will not only provide expert guidance, but also a wealth of knowledge about the history and craft of fans.

The classes start at 14.00hrs and last approximately 3 hours, during which time participants will make two fans: one of the traditional Chinese shape, the other of the Fontange shape, an early 20th century design.

Fan Sticks, equipment and tea/coffee and biscuits are provided by the Museum. All you need to bring is two different sheets of paper. Gift wrap is suitable, but not too shiny or folded.

Bookings

Bookings must be made in advance as numbers are limited to a maximum of six persons. Children (who must be over 12 years of age) should be accompanied by an adult.

For further details or to check the availability of a particular class, please contact The Fan Museum by e-mail: info@thefanmuseum.org.uk or call 020 8305 1441

Workshop Cost: £25.00 per place

Advance payment of the full amount is required to secure your place (as of 01 April 2016).

The workshops begin with a short handling session and introduction to fans (usually given by Mrs Helene Alexander, Director of The Fan Museum). Your workshop tutor, Caroline Allington, provides expert guidance in fan making and is on hand to assist with each stage of the process.

The two types of fans made during the workshop are illustrated below:

THE FAN MUSEUM

'A Hidden Treasure in the Heart of Historic Greenwich'

Visit the only museum in the UK devoted to the history of fans and the art of fan making. Nestled in the heart of historic Greenwich, The Fan Museum is home to a diverse collection of fans from around the world, dating from the 12th century onwards.

The buildings that house The Fan Museum are themselves of great interest and beauty. A pair of Grade II listed townhouses, constructed in 1721, have been lovingly and authentically restored to retain their original character and elegance.
